LAST DAY OF CONFERENCE

The Great Baptist Meeting
Is Drawing to a Close.

FIVE MORE SERMONS.

Dr. Lloyd T. Wilson Came From Pembroke Yesterday and Preached Twice.

The Five Conference at the Baptist church began the second week with three great meetings Saturday.

Sunday morning Rev. J. S. Rodgers preached on the Millennium to a crowded house. In the afternoon Rev. J. C. Massee spoke to an audience of men only and at night preached a powerful sermon from the text, "Remember Jesus Christ."

The night meeting was the biggest yet held. The main auditorium and the Sunday School room were both filled and many were in the gallery in the east end of the building. Also for the first time the new Baraca Hall, the addition to the north of the Sunday school room, was opened and the overflow crowd was seated in this new hall.

The song service closed with a solo by Pastor Millard A. Jenkins, "The Old Fireside," sung by request. The singing of this pathetic song in the rich, well-trained voice of the pastor moved many in the audience to tears.

Dr. Massee then preached a powerful revival sermon, holding the closest attention of the vast audience. His magnetic style in the pulpit and his thrilling flights of eloquence made a profound impression. Several professions followed the appeal at the close of the sermon.

Yesterday was another busy day with five sermons. Dr. W. A. Nelson, Mr. Frank L. Mallary and Dr. W. H. Smith left Saturday. Yesterday Dr. Lloyd T. Willson arrived from Pembroke, where he is assisting Rev. W. E. Mitchell in a revival, and preached twice.

At the 10 o'clock a. m. service Dr. Massee preached. Dr. Wilson then made his first address at 11 o'clock.

DR. L. T. WILSON.

He is pastor of the East Baptist church of Louisville and one of the strong men of his denomination in Kentucky. At 3 p. m. Dr. Wilson again preached and returned to Pembroke for a night service. At 4 p. m. Dr. Rodgers continued his series of sermons on prophecy.

Dr. Massee resumed his sermons on The Holy Spirit at the 7:30 appointment, with another large crowd on hand.

To-day Last Day.

There will be three more meetings to-day, at 10 o'clock, at 3 o'clock and at night.

The evening meeting will close the conference. Nearly 50 sermons and addresses have been heard in the ten days by a dozen of the ablest men in the South. No religious meeting ever held in the city has had such an array of able ministers participating.

DIED IN NEW YORK

Mr. John C. Latham Found
Son Dead on Return Home.

One of the saddest deaths we have had to mention for many years was that which occurred in the home of Mr. John C. Latham in New York city last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Latham, who had been here for three weeks looking into his property interests, started for New York last Friday night and was due to arrive there at 3:00 p. m. Sunday. Before he reached home his little boy, John C. Latham Jr., had breathed his last. The cause of his death we have not learned. He was two and a half years old but had never been strong.

A telegram was received here yesterday announcing that the remains would arrive here tomorrow night. Funeral arrangements cannot at this time be announced.

A NEW CHAPTER.

In the History of Hog Stealers in This County.

There is a new chapter in what seems to be an organized band of hog thieves. The eight fine fattening hogs stolen from Mr. J. E. Gossett, of Julien, were located in Louisville and Mr. Gossett went there and identified and got possession of his property. As will be remembered Mr. J. R. Caudle got possession of his six hogs which had been sold to a local dealer by Bill Johnson, col. Another negro, Ed Ware, is under arrest suspected of stealing two hogs from Mr. Edgar Major. It is said that Ware has made statements liable to incriminate Bill Johnson in the latter case also. Johnson is to be tried before Judge Parker.

Was Reared Here.

Mrs. Thos. C. Cruse, formerly Miss Addie Minor, of this city, died a few days ago at her home in Arkansas. She is survived by her husband and one child.

The court yesterday decided the Fairview graded school case in favor of the schools, dismissing the injunction asked for at the costs of the plaintiffs, Dr. E. S. Stuart and W. L. Layne. The case will be appealed.

Madisonville Wins.

In a hotly contested game on the local grounds Friday afternoon the Madisonville High School football team defeated the second South Kentucky College team of Hopkinsville by 12 to 11. The game was interesting from start to finish and a good crowd witnessed the home team mop up the Hopkinsville boys. The rooters were out in force and inspired the home team with enthusiasm and a determination to win. The finish was close, but we just had to have the game, as it was the first one ever played on the fair grounds gridiron. —Huffler.

TOBACCO GROWERS

Ask Imperial Manager to Retire From Field.

Henderson, Ky., Oct. 25.—A committee composed of ten of the leading tobacco growers of Webster county and a portion of Henderson county came here and called on Edwin Hodge, manager of the Imperial Tobacco Company, and asked him to retire from that field until after the 1906 crop shall have been sold.

No threats were used, but the situation is grave as the farmers are determined to use every legitimate means to prevent the purchase of this year's crop until after the last year's crop, which is in the association warehouses has been sold. The Imperial Company has not stated whether or not it will comply with the request.

GRACEY CUT IN.

The Home Telephone Co. has begun the line to Cadiz, for which the poles were planted a year ago. The wires have been strung to Gracey and a station has been established in McGehee's store. The line will be pushed on to Cadiz and exchanges are planned for both Gracey and Cadiz.

ENTERTAINMENT.

Tabernacle Attraction No. 1
Tonight.

Tonight the Elma B. Smith Co., will appear at the tabernacle. Concerning Miss Smith's appearance at Brookins, S. D., the individual says: "Elma B. Smith, the child impersonator, gave a delightful entertainment at the opera house Saturday evening. As an impersonator Miss Smith has few equals and the way she imitated the sounds of animals was wonderful. She kept the audience in continuous laughter and applause. If Miss Smith should visit this city again she would be sure of a large audience."

Goes On the Road.

Mr. Wallace Brumfield, with the F. A. Yost Co., will leave next Monday for Lexington. He will go on the road for the wholesale hardware house of Van Deering. Wallace is one of the best informed hardware men in this city. He entered the hardware department of the Forbes Mfg. Co. when a mere boy and gave his undivided attention to every detail of the business and soon stepped to the front in his line. His friends regret to see him leave, but predict great success for him.

JUDGE PAYNTER PLEASED THEM

A Large Crowd Heard the Junior Senator Saturday Night.

SPOKE AT COURTHOUSE.

Discussed State and National Questions for Hour and a Quarter.

Senator Thos. H. Paynter arrived in the city at 4 p. m. Saturday from Princeton and addressed a crowd of 300 or more persons, including a number of ladies, at the courthouse at 7:30 o'clock. He was introduced very gracefully and happily by Representative W. H. Southall, who alluded to the pleasure it had afforded him to vote for Judge Paynter for senator.

It was Senator Paynter's first visit to Hopkinsville and his first speech to a Hopkinsville audience made a most favorable impression. He spoke for an hour and a quarter, devoting most of his remarks to state issues. A special appeal was made to old Confederates to resent the imputation of Mr. Willson that their votes would be cast for him. A number of veterans were present and not a man of them was out of line. The Senator's address was along the same lines as those that have been published and it was delivered in a convincing style that had a fine effect upon all who heard it. He was frequently interrupted by applause and shouts of approval, when he made a telling point.

Senator Paynter left Sunday morning for Flemingsburg, where he spoke yesterday.

CAPICITY HOUSE

Greeted Rev. Julean Rodgers
Sunday Afternoon.

Evangelist Rodgers preached to ladies and girls only at the First Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. The audience room was literally packed and the distinguished divine preached one of the most powerful sermons ever heard in the city. The audience was in a receptive mood and the preacher was inspired by the close attention of his hearers to delight his message in a way that will live long in memories of all who were present.

Hanbery and Finn.

The Hon. J. T. Hanbery, of Hopkinsville, and the Hon. Laurence Finn, of Simpson county, addressed the voters of Lyon county at the courthouse in Eddyville yesterday at 1:30 p. m. and at Mont at 7 p. m.
